

THE INTERSECTION OF LINGUISTICS, LANGUAGE, AND CULTURE (ILLC)

A National Science Foundation Research Experience for Undergraduates Site Program

Essay Contest for High School Students

Deadline: April 1st 2022, 11.59pm EST

PRIZES

1st Prize: $300 Gift Card

2nd Prize: $250 Gift Card

3rd Prize: $200 Gift Card

High School Students are invited to submit:

- a) A response essay on one of the articles on language science listed on <https://undergrad-language-research.org/language-in-the-media/> or
- b) For those students who have participated in a NACLO (North American Computational Linguistics Olympiad), in the Linguistics League or the Linguistic Bowls: an essay on how this experience has changed your life

Length: 600 to 1,000 words

Winners will be invited to participate in a panel on an initiative to include language sciences as a subject in High Schools to be held both face-to-face at Molloy College, Long Island, New York and online.

For more information and submission:

<https://undergrad-language-research.org/illc-2022-conference>